A Special Message from our Past President & CEO, Joe Fowler

As many of you may know, Joe Fowler retired from his post as President & CEO of United Way of Central Kentucky in November, 2023. Please take a moment to watch this special video message from Joe, expressing his heartfelt appreciation for the community. We look forward to continuing our mission with the support of our dear friend's encouragement and support.

"I am compelled to express my heartfelt appreciation to all of our community members for the remarkable acts of kindness and support that you have consistently demonstrated..." - Joe Fowler
